- (a) the Energy Minister receives an application under section 58 from:
 - (i) that person; or
 - (ii) each of those persons; and
 - (b) where the conditional Ministerial exemption is to be subject to conditions:
 - (i) the Energy Minister has given that person, or each of those persons, a notice under section 62 setting out those conditions; and
 - (ii) 14 business days has passed since that notice was given; and
 - (c) the Energy Minister is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant the conditional Ministerial exemption; and
 - (d) the Resources Minister is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant the conditional Ministerial exemption.

Note: The Energy Minister cannot exercise a power under this subsection unless the Resources Minister is satisfied of the matter mentioned in paragraph (d).

- (2) Paragraph (1)(b) does not apply if:
- (a) that application mentioned in subsection (1) sets out proposed conditions to which the conditional Ministerial exemption will be subject; and
 - (b) the conditional Ministerial exemption mentioned in that subsection specifies the same conditions.
- (3) Paragraph (1)(b) does not apply if the Energy Minister reasonably considers that the proposed conditions are necessary to address exceptional circumstances.
- (4) For the purposes of being satisfied that it is appropriate to grant the conditional Ministerial exemption, a Minister may take into account any of the following matters:
- (a) the extent to which the conditional Ministerial exemption would promote a workably competitive market for regulated gas in the parts of Australia to which this Part applies (see section 9);
 - (b) the extent to which the conditional Ministerial exemption would promote the affordability and availability of regulated gas on reasonable terms in those parts of Australia;

 - (b) the Resources Minister is satisfied that that grant would not have a significant impact on those matters.

Note: The Energy Minister cannot grant the conditional Ministerial exemption unless the Resources Minister is satisfied of the matter mentioned in paragraph (b).

- (6) The Energy Minister must consult with each of the following before granting a conditional Ministerial exemption:
- (a) the Minister administering Part IVBB of the Act;
